Subject: Sampling Schedule for Week of 02/06/12

Stephen and John -

Here you go - I tried a table this time.....not sure it's much more helpful but perhaps its easier to read.

So far we have two appointments scheduled for Monday the week of February 13th and about 10 residents (give or take) who we are trying to schedule but we have not been able to schedule yet. I expect that next week will not be a completely full week.

Next week Kelley Chase will be sending out the schedule and information as I will be out of state at a conference.

Thanks - please let me know if you have any questions.
